Present at the hearing were Liquor Commissioners Tari Renner, Geoffrey Tompkins and Jim Jordan; George Boyle, Asst. Corporation Counsel, Clay Wheeler, Asst. Police Chief, and Tracey Covert, City Clerk; and Prakash Patel, owner/operator and Applicant's representative.

Commissioner Renner opened the liquor hearing and requested that the Applicant's representatives address this request. Commissioner Renner noted the neighborhood opposition to this application. Prakash Patel, owner/operator and Applicant's representative, addressed the Commission. He expressed his willingness to change his license application to a PBS, Packaged, Beer and wine only, Sunday Sales, liquor license.

Commissioner Renner noted that the location was problematic. Market St. was the western corridor into the City. This application represented a new license request and it would have to meet a high standard. He questioned the compelling reason for this application. He also questioned if it would be beneficial to the City, neighborhood and business.

Mr. Patel informed the Commission that he had purchased the store in February 2014. He stated his interest in a liquor license. There had been no problems at the store during the past eight (8) months. He added his willingness to hire security staff that would be placed inside the store.

Commissioner Renner encouraged Mr. Patel to work with the West Bloomington Revitalization Project, (WBRP). In addition, he should reach out to the neighborhood associations, (Old Towne and Gridley, Allin & Prickett's). Mr. Patel needed to gain these groups' support. He restated that the threshold to create new liquor license was high. He was not willing to take this application before the Council. He restated the impact of the store's location. He restated that Mr. Patel needed to work with and invest in the neighborhood. There was no reason to proceed at this time.

There being no further business before the Commission, the meeting recessed at 4:42 p.m.

Commissioner Renner opened the discussion of liquor license fees and video gaming terminal fees. The Commission would take input from the public regarding these two (2) fees at their November 4, 2014 meeting. The City Clerk's Office would notify all liquor license holders and businesses that had been licensed by the state to have video gaming terminals. He noted that the City had not increased liquor license fees in over thirty (30) years. He addressed video gaming terminal fees. Local governments in the state have adopted a variety of video gaming terminal fees: application fee, business fee and terminal fee. The Town of Normal has a $200 per year per terminal fee. Normal was considering a fee increase. The typical terminal fee was $200 - $500. Today, the Commission would hold a general discussion.

Liquor license fees could be phased in. Dollars from this fee increase could be earmarked, (i.e. power washing the Downtown, Police Department's Downtown hire back program). Any increase beyond inflation would not be supported. He hoped to take a proposal to the Council in November 2014.

Commissioner Tompkins expressed his interest to address both fees. He had proposed doubling the liquor license fee. It appeared that this fee would only be increase by twenty-five percent (25%).

Commissioner Renner was open to a thirty percent (30%) increase over two (2) years.

Commissioner Tompkins expressed his support for all three (3) video gaming terminal fees: application, business and terminal. He added his opinion that the terminal fee should be $500.

Commissioner Renner expressed his interest in the terminal fee which would be easy to administer.

Commissioner Jordan expressed his support for an increase to the liquor license fee which would be prorated over time. The City was behind as this fee had not been increased in decades. The percentage of increase needed to be reasonable as did the dollar amount. He cited his past experience with video gaming terminals. This was a lucrative business for the vendors and businesses. The City received one sixth of thirty percent (30%) from the state. If an establishment held a liquor license that allowed sale by the glass, it was eligible for video gaming. He recommended that the City's fee match the Normal's fee. $200 per terminal sounded fair. Most communities charged a fee.

Commissioner Tompkins restated that in his opinion $500 per terminal was reasonable.

Commissioner Renner would report back to the Commission at their November 4, 2014 meeting. The video gaming terminal fee would be easier to address. Any increase to liquor license fees would need to be earmark. The goal was to ease the burden on the taxpayers.

There being no further business before the Commission, the meeting adjourned at 4:48 p.m.

Respectfully,

Tracey Covert, CRM, CMC, RMC
City Clerk
